The Special Support Services (SSS) Office is responsible for assisting in arranging accommodations and for identifying resources at Washburn Tech for persons with disabilities. Qualified students with disabilities MUST register and provide documentation with the office to be eligible for services. New requests for accommodations should be submitted two months or more prior to the date services should begin; however, contact the SSS Office as soon as a need may arise. Depending on the accommodation request, four to eight weeks lead time may be needed for timely and effective provision of services. SSS coordinates and assist in arranging services it deems appropriate for eligible students on a case-by-case basis.

If you are a student with a disability that may substantially limit your ability to participate in this class and believe you will need accommodations, it is your responsibility to contact:

Who: Testing/ADA Coordinator
Phone: 785-228-6356
E-Mail: ssscoordinator@washburn.edu

Student may voluntarily identify themselves to the instructor for a referral to the Special Support Services Coordinator.

Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, when a child turns 18 or attends a postsecondary institution, (if that happens first) all rights of the parents transfer to the student
